CURE YOURSELF!

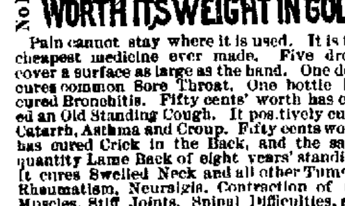

Dr Bohannan's "Vegetable Curative" is warranted to permanently cure all forms of Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, General Debility, Impotency, etc., and restores "Lost Fever," and brings back the "Youthful Vigor" of those who have destroyed it by sexual excesses or evil practises, in from two to seven weeks' time. This remedy, which has been used by Dr. Bohannan in his private practice for over thirty years, was never known to fail in curing even the WORST CASES. It gives vitality and imparts energy with wonderful effect in those middle aged men who feel a weakness beyond their years. Its invigorating properties are felt at once. Young men suffering from the consequences of that dreadfully destructive habit of Self-Abuse can use this medicine with the assurance of a speedy and PERMANENT cure. The patient gains strength and elasticity of spirits at once, as it acts directly on the parts affected as a soothing and healing tonic and anodyne to the relaxed seminal vesicles and irritated ducts, imparting power and tone and restoring them to their natural state, the same as if the baneful habit had never been indulged in. The ingredients are simple productions of nature—barks, roots herbs, etc., and are a specific for the above diseases.

Price, Five Dollars, sent with full directions, etc to any address. For sale only at Dr C A Bohannan's office, No 621 North Fifth street between Washington avenue and Green st., St Louis, Mo. Established in 1877.

Dr B's "Treatise on Special Diseases" which gives a clear delineation of the nature, symptoms, means of cure etc., of SYPHILIS, SEMINAL WEAKNESS &c., sent FREE to any address upon receipt of one stamp.

IMPORTANT LETTER

From a Distinguished Physician.

NO single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one or more and sometimes all yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored because but little understood by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won my hearty approval. I believe it likely to succeed when all the usual remedies fail, because it strikes at the root of the disease, viz., the acidified blood, while it heals the ulcerated membrane by direct application to the nasal passages. Its action is based on certain fixed rules, and unless the vital forces are too far exhausted, must, in the great majority of cases, effect a cure.

GEO. BEARD, M. D.
NORSCOTT BLOCK, So. FRAMINGHAM, Oct. 1, 1874.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

MAY safely claim to be one of the few popular remedies receiving the approval of medical gentlemen, who, in private, not only freely recommend it but use it in their families in preference to any of the preparations usually prescribed by physicians.

"You are aware," said a distinguished city physician, "that my obligations to the Mass. Medical Society are such that I cannot publicly recommend or prescribe the Radical Cure; but since I received so much relief from the use of it myself, after a thorough trial of the usual remedies, I have privately advised its use, and presume I have sent to our store no less than one hundred of my patients ... it."

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION.

GENTLEMEN,—We have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year, and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have to learn the first complaint yet.

We are not in the habit of recommending patent medicines, but your preparation meets the wants of thousands, and we think those afflicted should be convinced of its great merit so that their suffering will be relieved. We have been in the drug business for the past twelve years constantly and sold everything for Catarrh, but yours leads all the rest. If you see proper you can use this letter or any part of it that you wish.

Very truly yours, S. D. BALDWIN & CO.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

An Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly Medicated Strengthening Plaster, forming the best Plaster for pains and aches in the World of Medicine.

ELECTRICITY

As a grand curative and restorative agent is not equalled by any element or medicine in the history of the healing art. Unless the vital spark has fled the body, restoration by means of electricity is possible. It is the last resort of all physicians and surgeons, and has rescued thousands, apparently dead, from an untimely grave, when no other human agency could have succeeded. This is the leading curative element in this Plaster.

BALSAM AND PINE.

The healing properties of our own fragrant balsam and pine and the gums of the East are too well known to require description. Their grateful, healing, soothing, and strengthening properties are known to thousands. When combined in accordance with late and important discoveries in pharmacy, their healing and strengthening properties are increased tenfold. In this respect our Plaster is the best in use without the aid of electricity.

TWO IN ONE.

Thus combined we have two grand medical agents in one, each of which performs its function and unitedly produce more cures than any liniment, lotion, wash, or plaster ever before compounded in the history of medicine. Try one. PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

A Profitable Farm.

The city editor of the Philadelphia Ledger has been visiting a farmer friend near Reading, Pa., and thus records what he saw and learned: "A visit, yesterday, to the farm of Mr. Christopher Shearer, five miles north of Reading gave a good idea of progress. This farm contains 100 acres, and has upon it an orchard of Bartlett pears, which occupies ten acres; there are also forty acres in peaches and apples and another apple orchard, which occupies eighteen acres of land. From ten to twenty acres are planted in tobacco, and the remainder of the land is planted in potatoes, rye, strawberries, artichokes, willow trees for baskets, and a nursery of peach trees. There is also a large pond for gathering ice, to supply an immense refrigerator, in which the fruit is stored and kept until the market is favorable for its sale.

The crops gathered this year were 1,000 bushels of pears, which sold on an average at $2 per bushel; the peach orchard, which is quite young, produced 400 baskets, which sold for $1 per basket. From the apple orchard there were picked 2,000 bushels, which sold from $1 to $1.50 per bushel. The apples that fell from the trees, and those not considered worth sending to market, were sent to the cider press, and from them 200 barrels of juice were obtained, which is now in large vats to remain until it becomes vinegar; selling at 15 cents per gallon. The patch of tobacco yielded from 1,500 to 2,000 pounds per acre, and sold at 15 cents per pound. In addition to this, 2,000,000 of tobacco plants were sold at $1 per 1,000; 1,260 bushels of Jerusalem artichokes were raised for the purpose of feeding cattle, but most of them were sold in New York at from $2.50 to $4 per barrel, for pickling purposes, most of them being used in restaurants and bar rooms as appetizers or for lunch. The sale of willows produced $100 this year, and for the nursery $500 was obtained by the sale of young peach and apple trees. Last spring four acres were planted in strawberries, and it is expected that next year at least 10,000 quarts will be gathered. Notwithstanding the long dry spell in this section of the state, grapes enough were gathered to make 600 gallons of wine, which readily sells at $1 per gallon. Mr. Shearer also purchased grapes enough from his neighbors to make 500 gallons more. On the other portions of the land there were gathered 35 tons of hay, 400 bushels of potatoes, and 250 bushels of rye. There were also sold $200 worth of ice, the pond yielding more than was necessary for supplying the refrigerator, and $200 was received from other farmers for storing fruit, etc., in the ice house. The entire cost of farming the land, including fertilizers, was, for the year, $4,000. The products amounted to over $12-000—quite a respectable profit on one hundred acres of land.

The winter's frost must rend the burr of the nut before the fruit is seen. So adversity tempers the human heart to discover its real worth.

MANKIND'S MISTAKES MADE MANIFEST.

The practice of mistaken economy was probably never more prevalent than during the past few years. Many persons have been deceived into buying goods merely because they were low priced—not cheap, as represented.

B. STINE,

THE "BOSS CLOTHIER'S"

Efforts to demonstrate the above facts, have been CROWNED WITH SUCCESS.

1st. By placing before the people of this community a line of Ready-made Clothing!

Superior in Fit, Style, Workmanship, Timmings and Substantial Materials, than any kept by our competitors.

2d. By selling our Goods at Lower Prices, notwithstanding their superiority over others.

And the reasons why we can sell a better class of Goods at Lower Prices than our friends in the clothing business, is due to the following facts:

We buy for Cash, not where we can, but where we please.

We don't owe any allegiance to any one house to supply us with clothing for our trade, to be used by them as scavengers to feed us and our costomers on what they can't sell; and while any other house may claim to manufacture their own clothing, the fact of selling a better class of goods for less money, backed up with the guarantee to refund the money in every case, is the strongest evidence that we mean what we say.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 2, 1880.

GEORGE P. BOWEN, Esq., of Springfield, clerk of the U. S. District Court, is alarmingly ill, and but little hope of his recovery is entertained by his family and friends.

SECRETARY SHERMAN, it seems, notwithstanding his civil service pretensions, is not averse to doing a little official work in his own behalf, as, for instance, in Virginia, where, according to our telegraphic columns, he has executed a fine bit of political jugglery.

THE Republican State Central Committee has been called to meet at Chicago on the 25th inst. In addition to the committee, leading Republicans from all parts of the state will be invited to meet with the members, for the purpose of consultation. At this meeting the committee will fix the time for holding the state convention.

AND now it transpires that Hayt whom Schurz has just removed from the office of Indian commissioner, held a position in the Indian bureau during Grant's administration, and was removed on account of improper conduct. This of course made him hostile to the late administration, and Schurz—whose ruling passion is hatred of Grant—at once became very strongly drawn towards him, and had him placed at the head of the bureau. There have long been rumors afloat connecting him with questionable transactions, but Schurz could not be made to believe that any man could be dishonest and still hate Grant. That hostility, in the opinion of Mr. Schurz, sufficiently established the honesty of Mr. Hayt. The sequel has proven that a man may be a villain and still howl about Grant.

IT remains to be seen whether Congress will dare to vote $75,000 back pay to Fitz John Porter. To restore the man to military rank will be an insult to every loyal officer in the Union army. Porter was as much of a "snob" as he was a traitor; he wanted to get even with those who had displaced McClellan; and he did not care whether the Federal soldiers, whom it was his duty to assist, were sacrificed or not. He knows that he never would have his petition for restoration to rank, and for back pay, granted by a Congress in which the majority represented men who were loyal to the government during the rebellion; so he wants to have his little matter attended to while his Confederate friends are in power. Should the back pay be voted to him, it will be a large reward for official dereliction and breach of trust.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

IN regard to the exodus of North Carolina negroes to Indiana, the Illinois States Zeitung questions the power of Congress to order a committee of investigation. It says that whenever a white farm laborer emigrates from Illinois or Ohio to Kansas or Nebraska in order to better his fortunes, neither State nor Congress have any right to investigate his purposes or motives, and that the Congressional committee has no right whatever in the premises, to inquire into the causes of this migration. The Zeitung says: "An immense stream has flowed from East to West; if now laboring forces from the South fill up the gaps created by this emigration toward the far West, it is quite a natural spectacle. Why shall the colored laborers be compelled to remain in the South at starvation wages, where they are treated like dogs, while they can have higher wages in the North, and will receive better attention? If the right to emigrate shall become a verity, this principle must not only apply to a migration from East to West, but also from South to North, and not for white men alone, but also for men of color. Whether those who make use of this right benefit or injure their prospects does not concern the State nor the Federal Government. The investigation ordered by a Democratic Congress only proves that the Democratic party of former slaveholders cannot and will not yet accustom themselves to the thought that their former slaves are now citizens of the United States."

A Big Fortune.

General Horace Porter, formerly on Grant's staff, has made about $300,000 in New York since he left the President's household. From his father's estates and salaries he had acquired about $40,000. Mr. Pullman wanted to see him succeed and put him into the elevated railroads. He first invested all he had of every sort there, and, when it had increased, put up the whole sum as a margin for more stock, and as the stock did not decline, he was able to hold the amount he had purchased on margin, and made $240,000 out of that $40,000.

Peculiarities of the Present Month.

New York Times, Jan. 29.

The coming February will be an odd month in several respects. It will have in the first place an odd number of days, owing to its leap-year distinction. It will have an odd number of Sundays—five—which is very odd for the shortest month of the year—and one of the Sunday's will be Washington's birthday. It will begin on Sunday and end on Sunday, which is also odd. The five Sundays correspond in date with the five Sundays in the following August, which is odd again. It is said that no one now living will ever see another February so odd; nor will their children, nor their children's children—sufficient in itself to make the month interesting. Many old superstitions are associated with the month, which originally had 29 days among the Romans in an ordinary year. When the Roman Senate, however, decreed that the eighth month should be named after the Emperor Augustus, one day was taken from February and bestowed on August, giving it 31 days, in order that it might not be inferior to July, called after Julius Caesar. February was the month of purification, from februum, during which the Lupercalia, or Februalia, were celebrated, the festival beginning the 15th and celebrated annually. Luperculus, or Februus, was the god of fertility, whose appropriate sacrifices were dogs and goats. After the offering, two youths, patricians, were conducted to the altar, when one of the priests touched their foreheads with a sword dipped in the blood of the victims, and another priest washed off the stain with wool soaked in milk. Then the priests set down to a feast, at which wine was plentifully furnished. After rising from the board, they cut the skins of the sacrificed goats in pieces, and covered, with some of these, parts of their bodies, in imitation of the deity, represented as half clad in goat-skins. With the other pieces, converted into thongs, they ran through the streets, striking everybody they met, particularly women, who courted the blow, from the belief that it averted sterility and the pains of travail. The ceremonies of the festival were supposed to symbolize the purification of the people. If it had any such power, the revival of the Lupercalia would be advisable here, where politicians are grievous and innumerable. To purify New York materially and morally, the Lupercalia would need to be extended throughout the year.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—In reference to the statement made recently by Parnell, that Queen Victoria contributed nothing in 1847 to the Irish famine, a denial to which statement by Lord Randolph Churchill was cabled here, Parnell has addressed a letter to the New York Herald, in which he says: "In reference to Lord Randolph Churchill's contradiction of my statement that the Queen gave nothing to relieve the famine in 1847, I find that I might have gone still further, and said with perfect accuracy that not only did she give nothing, but that she actually intercepted £6,000 of donation which the Sultan of Turkey desired to contribute to the famine fund in 1847. The Sultan had offered £10,000, but the English Ambassador at Constantinople was directed to inform him that his contribution was to be limited to £4,000, and that the Sultan should not, in good taste, give any more than Her Majesty. Hence, the net result to the famine fund by the Queen's action was a loss of £6,000.

Mrs. Mattie Balch.

On Saturday last the REPUBLICAN noticed the presence of Mrs. Balch in this city. The following from a correspondent will explain itself:

On last Saturday eve a small party of ladies and gentlemen called at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Curtiss to meet Mrs. Curtiss's sister, Mrs. Mattie Balch, of Brooklyn, New York, the distinguished dramatic and costume reader. During the evening Mrs. Balch rendered for us "Aux Italians," by Meredith, displaying both wonderful dramatic power in her reading and rare musical ability in her singing. She next delivered a new selection, by Caller, entitled "Not in the Programme." During the reading of "Aux Italians" we all concurred in the belief that Mrs. Balch was making her master effort, and nothing could possibly surpass it; but when she finished "Not in the Programme," it would not have required a very careful observer to have seen tears in the eyes of every one present, not excepting those of our old and time honored citizen, Mr. E. O. Smith. Mrs. Balch's repertoire consists of the most difficult and elegant productions of foreign and American authors. She impersonated the Irishman, the Dutchman and the Yankee. She has a complete wardrobe especially selected for her costume recitals. To use a homely phrase she is strictly immense in Dutch. Her friends were so much pleased with her that they prevailed upon her to entertain the Decatur people on her return from Iowa, where she will read every night until the 15th. Maj. Smith, as an extra inducement, tendered her the opera house for just what it cost to pay expenses. The full orchestra will be employed, and we hope some of our local singers will assist her. N.

A REPENTANT FUSIONIST.

SHERMAN'S FIGURING.

Pittsburg for Grant.

NEWS FROM ALL AROUND.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 31.—P. A. Sawyer, Fusionist secretary of state, has, under protest, given up all state property in his possession. This afternoon Sawyer delivered to the Republican secretary of state the state seal, returns of votes for governor, county officers, senators and representatives, council records and all reports of the executive council of 1879, relating to election returns. He says he received legal advice yesterday, to hold out in his position, but as he was satisfied that the sheriff had a warrant for his arrest, he did not choose to make a martyr of himself, and has, therefore, given up his claim to the office.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—It is asserted, and facts seem to corroborate it, that there has been such sharp competition in grain rates to the seaboard that considerable reductions have been made on several contracts below schedule rates. Shippers set up this claim, but railway men assert they believe the only cut hitherto has been made by the Grand Trunk, and that other roads have been holding freight rates firmly. It is stated to-night that arrangements have been made by which fast freight lines shall pay to shippers storage local charges on grain shipped from here, and thus virtually make a cut on regular rates.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The trial of Mrs. Smith and Cave Bennett for the murder of the husband of Mrs. Smith, a policeman of Jersey City, resulted in a verdict of "not guilty."

In the chess contest for the championship of America, Captain McKenzie defeated Grundy.

The grand jury to-day presented twenty five indictments against Rev. Edward Cowley, the manager of "Shepherd's Fold," charging him with starving, beating and cruelly ill-treating children in the Fold. Cowley was arrested and sent to the Tombs in default of $2,000 bail.

OMAHA, Jan 31.—The Evening News made a canvass among the Nebraska newspapers on republican presidential preferences, with this result: counties for Blaine, 19; counties for Grant, 3; papers for Blaine, 17; for Grant 7; for Sherman, 1. Of 110 Omaha business men interviewed, 58 were for Blaine, 34 for Grant, 9 for Sherman and the rest scattering.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 31.—Another step in the investigation of the Baldwin mystery was taken this morning, the grand jury having found a true bill for murder in the second degree against Wm. Schalter, for maliciously and feloniously killing Harry Baldwin, on the night of March 15, 1879.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The republican state convention, to choose delegates to the Chicago convention, meets at Utica, Feb. 25th.

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—The governor today issued an order that Charles F. Freeman, the Pocasset child murderer, be confined in the state lunatic hospital.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—The police on Friday night made a descent upon a house on Supper street. On opening the door the police were fired upon. They returned the fire and arrested two men and two women. The fifth occupant, Deutch, an important political criminal long sought by the police, shot himself dead. The police then searched the house and found a printing and a large number of copies of the last issue of the revolutionary journal, "The Will of the People;" also forged stamps and documents, poison and explosives. The police superintendent, who was wounded, and his assistant, having effected the capture at the risk of their lives, have been promoted and decorated with the order of Vladimer. A judicial inquiry into the circumstances has commenced.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 1.—It has been said that Gould is negotiating for the Memphis Road, recently sold to Mr. Brooks, with a view of extending it south to connect with the Missouri, Kansas and Texas. Mr. Brooks says the road is not for sale, and as Mr. Gould is backing the Lexington and Southern, which will run south from Pleasant Hill, it is not reasonable to suppose he would buy the Memphis Road, unless to get it out of the way of the Lexington and Southern. The reversal clause in the deed would make it very undesirable property for any one who did not intend to build the road.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Information received here this evening from Harrisburg, Pittsburg and other portions of Pennsylvania shows that Senator Cameron's influence has prevailed in locations where it was supposed that the Blaine and Sherman influences were in the ascendency. It appears now that of the delegates thus far elected more than two-thirds are for Grant and in favor of instructing to vote as a unit for Grant. If this course is carried out in the convention it may lead to some little controversy among the Blaine delegates, but, being so completely in the minority, it is believed that they will not attempt to make any issue. Senator Blaine himself says that he has from the beginning refrained from saying a word to any of his friends in Pennsylvania respecting his candidacy or toward securing delegates, and that whatever has been done there was without solicitation on his part, and he so informed Senator Cameron before he left here for Harrisburg. He has always regarded Pennsylvania as being particularly strong for Gen. Grant. In the event of Gen. Grant's not being a candidate, Blaine is the second choice of Pennsylvania. Senator Cameron stated to your correspondent that it was his intention to force the issue in this connection, and carry out the programme inaugurated six weeks ago. By starting the Grant boom in Pennsylvania, and having it followed up in New York, Indiana, Illinois, and other Western States, he was satisfied Gen. Grant would poll more votes than any other candidate, and for that reason he believed in his nomination.

QUINCY, Feb. 1.—The jury in the case of James A. Frink, on trial for killing Charles Ross in this city on August 23, 1879, agreed upon a verdict at 6 o'clock this morning, finding Frink guilty of manslaughter, and fixed the punishment at one year in the penitentiary. The Judge was sent for and Frink, who was out on bail, was summoned from home to hear the verdict. Frink was immediately committed to jail. An effort will be made in court to morrow morning for a new trial.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The papers today state that the Pacific Mail directors, Saturday afternoon, took their anticipated action and reduced passenger rates from New York to San Francisco from $130 to $75, and steerage rates to $35. A circular was issued to shippers announcing that after February 11, the company will be prepared to name rates of freight and make contracts for the year. The contract with the Panama Railroad, under which it pays the Pacific Mail $60,000 per month for the entire San Francisco business, remains in force, and some of the directors even propose to refund the debt to the Panama company by taking it upon themselves.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Elihu B. Washburne has been in the city for the past two days, and leaves to morrow for Boston. The fact that his brother, ex-Governor Cadwallader C. Washburn, of Wisconsin, arrived at the same time led to the supposition among the political gossips about town that the movement to start a Washburne "boom" was on the carpet.

The notion was wholly without foundation. The ex-Minister to France is an out spoken Grant man, believing that he is the strongest candidate before the people and sure to receive the nomination if he desires it.

The report that Washburne has recently declared himself a candidate for the Gubernatorial nomination in Illinois is also contradicted by persons in his confidence, who say he has made no such announcement. He feels so sure that Grant will be tendered, and will accept, the nomination, that any talk of possibilities and contingencies respecting himself does not concern him in the least.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The leading Grant and Blaine men in Virginia are in a high state of indignation because the Republican State Committee has refused to call a State Convention to elect delegates to the Chicago Convention, but arrogated to itself the power to appoint the delegates. It is charged that nearly every member of the committee has within a short time been appointed to Federal positions under the Treasury Department, and that it is the purpose of the committee to appoint only delegates favorable to the nomination of Secretary Sherman.

FERRISS---FERRISS

Decatur One-Price Shoe Store.

Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

ALL accounts agree that there has been an unusual demand for cheaply made or shoddy boots or shoes. It is a very short-sighted policy to buy or sell such stuff. In using these goods you pay out twice as much money in a year for your boots and shoes, and you never have a pair that fits, because manufacturers of the cheap grades give no attention to the fit of their work. We trust that people who buy shoddy work will turn over a new leaf in the matter and practice true economy, by making quality the first consideration of their purchases of boots and shoes. At the popular Boot and Shoe House of L. L. Ferriss you can get prime, fine and serviceable Boots and Shoes for as little money as you can buy cheaper grades elsewhere. His goods are made from the choicest materials, ever improved styles of Lasts, graded in sizes and widths to fit the human foot properly—and no shoddy nor deception there. Mr. Ferriss does a one-price cash business, and can afford to sell very low. You can find the largest assortment in the city of strictly good goods at Ferriss' New Shoe Store, 13 East Main street, being just across the street from his old store and one door east of Millikin's Bank.

IT can almost be asserted that ST. JACOB'S OIL works wonders. Shortly before the New Year, when I visited my family in Mitchell, I found my son Edward, a lad little more than ten years old, very sick He suffered with Rheumatism, and so terribly that he was perfectly stiff in his limbs, could not possibly walk, and had to be carried from place to place. At once I sent for some ST. JACOBS OIL, used it according to directions, and in a few days could see evidences of considerable improvement. On the 10th of this month I again visited my family, and was astonished to find him well and hearty He once more has fresh color in his face and can go to school again. Whenever the old trouble threatens to return, relief is immediately secured by the use of the celebrated ST. JACOBS OIL. From sheer joy over this result I cannot withhold recommending ST. JACOBS OIL to suffering humanity as a true benefactor.

SATURDAY night at about 10:45 o'clock, L. L. Ferriss, who resides on North Main street, was told by his hired girl that she had heard some one at her window trying to effect an entrance. Mr. Ferriss went to another window, and by the light of the moon he could see a man crouched down, trying his level best to open the window at which he had been discovered by the girl. Mr. Ferriss thereupon got his revolver in shape, and banged away through the window three times in rapid succession. The would-be burglar immediately left, dodging around the corner of the dwelling in a hurry. Sunday morning Mr. Ferriss recovered two of the bullets he had fired from his revolver that had lodged in the plank walk and in the weather boarding; the other bullet could not be found, and it is supposed that the burglar carried it away with him. The family was not disturbed any more that night, and it is altogether probable that no further attempts will be made to burglarize Mr. Ferriss' dwelling.

PRESIDENT WELLS performed the duties of chairman admirably at the regular meeting of the Athenians on Saturday night. Spirited recitations by Misses Notie Large and Maggie Phalen were well received by the assembly. Will Carter, in "Schneider's Ride," was as humorous as possible. The Ventilator, read by Albert E. Scanlan, had, in addition to its home witticisms, several pages of correspondence from Albert Summers, Esq , of Paris, Ill.; the latter was given in the gentleman's happiest vein. The music by the orchestra, with Miss Adele Shellabarger as organist, was up to its usual standard of excellence. The debate on "Resolved, That the Indians have a better right to the country than the whites," occupied 45 minutes in its delivery, and elicited close attention. Horace Andrews, Clarence McClelland and Joseph Burroughs represented the affirmative, and Cyrus Randolph and A. V. Andrews the negative. The judges decided in favor of the negative. Sup't Gastman, as the critic of the evening, was heartily applauded.

Havergal Memorial Service.

Yesterday the exercises at the Y. M. C. A. were varied from the usual course, and a service of song and Bible reading in honor of the memory of Miss Frances Ridley Havergal, the English poetess, was conducted by Prof. I. E. Brown. The hymns sung, with the exception of one by Fannie Crosby, were composed by Miss Havergal. "Tempted and Tried," "I gave my Life for Thee," "Take my Life and let it be," and others were sung. The Bible reading consisted of passages which she had selected as a commentary on her hymn, "I gave my Life for Thee," Miss Frankie Taylor read "Miss Havergal and her Hymns," by Ira D. Sankey. A poem addressed by Miss Havergal to Fannie Crosby, was read by Miss Judd. The service was very interesting, and awakened a train of thought in the minds of many present, which will lead them to enquire more earnestly after the way of life which this sweet singer at all times endeavored to show to others both in her life and songs.

DEATH OF JOHN W. HAWORTH.

A Well-Known Citizen, Veteran Soldier and ex-Official Called to His Eternal Home.

DIED—In this city, at his late residence, No. 75 West Main street, on Sunday, Feb 1st, 1880, at 11 a. m., of diabetes, JOHN W. HAWORTH, aged about 42 years.

Perhaps no resident of Decatur was better known to our people or had more fast friends in this and other places than the deceased. He was the fifth son of Mahlon Haworth, Esq., brother of George D., James W. and Mayor L. L. Haworth, and was born in Clinton county, Ohio, on the 25th day of February, 1838, making him a few days less than 42 years of age at his death. He came to Decatur with his father about the year 1856, and remained here until 1858, when he joined a party of gold hunters bound for California. The Hon. E. O. Smith was one of the party, and deceased underwent the greatest hardships during the overland trip. En route the party got lost, and was without proper food and water for seventy days, being compelled to drink alkali water and eat the flesh of animals that had died on the plains. It is believed that on this trip were laid the seeds of the disease from which John Haworth died. At the commencement of the late war deceased returned from California, and was among the first to enlist in the first company raised in Decatur—that of Company A., of Gen R. J. Oglesby's old regiment, the 8th Ill Vol. He served three months, being chosen 1st sergeant. He re-enlisted as a private in the 7th Ill. Cavalry, in the late Capt. A. J. Gallagher's company, of which company deceased's young brother, Frank Haworth, (who was afterward taken prisoner and died at Andersonville prison), was also a member. Deceased served until the close of the war, when he returned to Decatur. In 1868 he was placed on the police force, and served with such general acceptability that in 1870 he was elected city marshal, which responsible position he held without intermission until the spring of 1877, when he was succeeded by Norman Pringle. He was again elected city marshal in 1878, and on account of failing health he was compelled to retire from further service as an official at the close of that year During the time that he was marshal he also acted as Special Deputy United States Marshal, and we believe he held his commission as a United States official until the time of his death. At all times and on every occasion he proved himself a very efficient and brave officer. When he started after a criminal he always effected his arrest. In January, 1877, he left Decatur for Oregon in pursuit of a Piatt county murderer named Huffman, (afterwards sent up for life from Monticello,) and single-handed and alone he captured his man in the woods near Oregon City, and brought him to Monticello on a requisition from Gov. Cullom. On the return trip the murderer was hand-cuffed to the officer, and all the sleep the official got was such as he could obtain while seated beside his prisoner.—It was an extremely rough position, and the exposure and hardships endured on that memorable trip are thought to have given deceased's trouble a fresh start from which he never recovered, although he has been under the constant treatment of a well-known physician for the past two years. His apparent ill health has often been remarked, and the announcement of his death is no surprise to the reading public. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Ida, aged about 13 years, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take from the Tabernacle, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be conducted by the Odd Fellows and the Macon County Veteran Association, both of which organizations deceased was an honored member.

Shot and Robbed.

F. B. Altman, a stone cutter in the employ of W. H. Grindol, and a member of the Good Templars Lodge, claims to have been shot and robbed of a sum of money on Saturday night at about 10:40 o'clock, under the following circumstances: At about 8 o'clock he went to Henry Ebert's confectionary, pulled out his money and bought some oranges. He then went to the temperance meeting at the tabernacle where he remained until the close of the exercises when he accompanied three young ladies home, one of whom is a servant girl at Elder John W. Tyler's residence on North Main street. He says he left the young lady at Mr. Tyler's at about 10:35 o'clock, and proceeded on his way to his boarding house—Mr. Grindol's on West Main street. He went south to William street, and then went west Just before arriving at the alley west of the Riley House, he says he was assaulted by three men who shot him in the calf of his right leg, downed him, and robbed him of about $9 in cash, not taking his watch and some other money (about $5) he had on his person. The robbers decamped, and Mr. Altman says he made his way to his boarding place as best he could where he told the story as above related. Sunday three tramps were arrested by Constable Block, on suspicion of having committed the assault on Altman but later developments proved that they could have had no connection with the affair. However they were lodged in the calaboose over night and discharged this morning.

Parties living in the neighborhood where the alleged assault on Altman is claimed to have been made, say they were awake until after 11 o'clock, and they heard no unusual noise or explosion of a pistol. Mr. Roberts who lives on the alley named above is quite positive he heard no noise, and had there been a scuffle or pistol fired off within a block of his home he would certainly have heard the racket. The affair has a mysterious aspect and in justice to themselves as guardians of the public peace, and for the safety of the belated pedestrians, the matter ought to be thoroughly investigated by the police officers.

For Marshal.

John A. Brockway is the first in the field, this year, being to day announced as a candidate for re-election to the office of Marshal. Mr. Brockway has been connected with the police force of the city for many years, and is a thoroughly experienced officer.

Complimentary Benefit.

Mr. Joseph Critchfield who has been giving free temperance lectures in this city during the past week will be tendered a grand complimentary benefit at the tabernacle to-night. The programme will consist of character recitations by Mr. Critchfield and vocal selections by his daughter Miss Effie Critchfield The entertainment is deserving of liberal patronage and we have no doubt there will be a very large audience present. Admission 25 cents, doors open at 7 o'clock.

"GRANT'S TOUR AROUND THE WORLD."

Being a Narrative of the Incidents and Events of his Journey, and Containing Accurate Descriptions of the Cities and Countries Visited by him, the Manners and Customs of the People, Remarkable Places and Objects of Interest, with a Full Account of the Great Honors Paid to Gen. Grant by the Sovereigns and People of the Old World, etc., by James D. McCabe, the well-known Historian. Published by the National Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Chicago and St. Louis.

The journey of General Grant Around the World is one of the most remarkable events of modern history. He was everywhere received by both the sovereigns and people of the old world with the highest honors, and his whole journey was like a romance. The book begins with an account of Gen. Grant's departure from Philadelphia, in the steamer "Indiana," and gives a pleasant account of his voyage across the Atlantic, and arrival in England. His reception in that country, the distinguished honors paid him by Queen Victoria, and the enthusiastic welcome he met with in all parts of England and Scotland, are related in graphic style. Then, taking them in their regular order, the book narrates the travels of Gen. Grant in the various countries of Europe, the attentions and honors shown him by the sovereigns and people of every country he visited. It gives his interviews with the statesmen of the old world in full. Then, leaving Europe, the reader is taken to Egypt, the Holy Land, India, Siam, China, and Japan, and the travels of Gen. Grant in these interesting countries are related at length.—The manners and customs of these far-off Eastern people are brought before us with a vividness that is actually life-like We see the towns, the people, the quaint customs, and the thousand and one habits of daily life in the East as plainly as if we were looking on the scene itself. It should be remembered that General Grant enjoyed peculiar advantages in his travels. The governments of the countries he visited afforded him every facility for examining and studying the civilization and institutions of their respective countries. No other traveler ever had such an opportunity of seeing and learning so much, and no crowned king was ever the recipient of such great honors from foreign powers as was the ex-President of the United States. These facts give to a narrative of Gen. Grant's Tour an interest that would not attach to an ordinary work of travel.

The mechanical execution of the work is superb. It is a large octavo volume of more than 800 pages, illustrated with nearly 200 fine engravings of the places visited by Gen. Grant, and with a fine new steel engraving of the General himself.—These engravings are accurate, having been drawn on the spot, and are not, like many of the wood cuts in the Cheap John publications of Gen. Grant's Travels, old pictures with new titles under them.—They are genuine works of art, and greatly enhance the value of the book. The price is so low that every one can afford to purchase a copy, and we advise our readers to procure, without delay, this truly superb book.

This is the only full and authentic low-priced edition of Gen. Grant's Travels.—Price only $3 00 per copy. It is sold by subscription only, and MR. L J. SPENCER, who is the authorized agent for this section, is now canvassing for it

A Female Poker Player.

A slight girl, dressed in black, with a sad face, explained to a Rochester news-gatherer the other morning how it happened that she engaged in a game of draw poker on a railway train. "You see," she began, "after we left Buffalo I found in some way that I had lost my money, and what to do I didn't know. I had my ticket in another pocket, and that helped matters. Two gentlemen in the section just ahead of me were playing cards. It was poker. I became quite interested in the game, for you see I often play it with my brothers for corn, and they say I play pretty well. Pretty soon I made some remark about the game, and then they asked me if I wouldn't like to 'set in.' Just for the fun of the thing, I said yes, and I never had such luck. I guess they let me win the first two or three times because I was a lady, but after that they played for what they were worth, and so did I. And you never saw the equal of the cards I held. They called me once, and all I had was three aces and two nines." "Is that a good hand?" "Well, I should say so. It was good for eight dollars that time." "How much did you win in all?" "Oh, somewhere between forty and fifty dollars. I haven't counted it yet."

Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., known to every one in that vicinity as a most influential citizen and Christian minister of the M. E. Church, says: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Drs. Matchett & France, physicians and druggists of the same place, say: "It is having a tremendous sale, and is giving perfect satisfaction such as nothing else has done. For Lame Back, Side or Chest, don't fail to use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. We recommend these remedies." Sold by Dr. A. J. Stoner.

"THE GREAT BOOM."

Eighteen hundred and seventy-nine will long be remembered as the time when all kinds of business and financial prosperity seemed to spring into new life. Merchants are finding plenty of ready customers for their wares, mechanics meet with ready employment at fair wages, and the farmers are receiving advanced prices for their products, and it is acknowledged by all that in no part of our country are the evidences of prosperity and comfort so marked as along the entire line of the "Old Reliable" Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad. And to attain these results the management of the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad have given their careful thought and attention, and the rapid growth of business, and increasing wealth of the community along the whole line are evidences that their efforts are fully appreciated. We are, as usual, running in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad through Day Coaches, Reclining Chairs (free), and Pullman Sleeping Cars from Chicago via Quincy to Missouri river points. Also through Day Coaches from Toledo and Indianapolis, with Pullman Sleeping Cars from Toledo via Danville, Springfield and Quincy, to Kansas City, Atchison and St. Joseph without change. Families traveling with children will find it greatly to their advantage to take the "Old Reliable" H. & St. Jo. R. R., as no changes or transfers are made.
